

Author Visit at Neil Armstrong

We are excited to announce that author Dori Hillstead Butler will be visiting Neil Armstrong Elementary on Monday, April 29th. She will be coming from the state of Washington to visit North Scott. We want to give you the opportunity to order some of her books and have them autographed while she is here.

Below are listed titles from several of the series she has written. The grade/interest level is also listed. All are paperback except for the first one. If you would like to learn more about Ms. Butler you can visit her website at <http://www.kidswriter.com/dori-home/about-2/>
