

TUTORING

Licensed personnel may provide paid tutorial services provided the rendering of such services does not constitute an impropriety or breach of regular services which are the licensed personnel's professional responsibility.

The superintendent will confer with the principal of the staff member performing paid tutorial services to students taught by the tutor to insure compliance with the policy and administrative procedures.

The principal or superintendent may require other licensed personnel who serve as paid tutors to submit a list of North Scott students who are tutored.

Approved: October 22, 1990
Reviewed: May 11, 2015
Revised: