

REPORTABLE COMMUNICABLE DISEASES AND INFECTIOUS CONDITIONS

The following infectious diseases are required to be reported to the state and local public health offices:

Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS)	Hantavirus syndromes	Severe acute respiratory syndrome (SARS)
Anthrax	Hepatitis A, B, C, D, E	Shigellosis (Shigella)
Arboviral disease -includes West Nile Virus, St. Louis, LaCrosse, WEE, EEE, VEE encephalitis	Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV) infection other than AIDS	Small Pox
Botulism	Influenza	Staphylococcus aureus invasive disease
Brucellosis	Legionellosis (Legionella)	Staphylococcus aureus, Methicillin-resistant (MRSA), invasive disease
Campylobacteriosis (Campylobacter)	Leprosy (Hansen's disease)	Staphylococcus aureus, Vancomycin-resistant (VRSA)
Chlamydia	Listeria monocytogenes invasive disease	Streptococcus pneumoniae invasive disease
Cholera	Lyme disease	Syphilis
Cryptosporidiosis	Malaria	Tetanus
Cyclospora	Measles (rubeola)	Toxic Shock Syndrome
Diphtheria	Meningococcal invasive disease	Trichinosis
Encephalitis	Mumps	Tuberculosis, pulmonary and laryngeal (infectious)
Enterococcus invasive disease	Parvovirus B 19 infection (fifth disease and other complications)	Typhoid fever
Escherichia coli shiga toxin-producing and related diseases -includes HUS and TP	Pertussis (whooping cough)	Viral hemorrhagic fever (VHF) (e.g., Lassa, Marburg, Ebola, Crimean-Congo, South American)
Giardiasis	Plague	Yellow fever
Gonorrhea	Poliomyelitis
Haemophilus influenzae type B invasive disease	Psittacosis
	Rabies
	Rocky Mountain spotted fever
	Rubella (including congenital)
	Salmonellosis (Salmonella)

Source: Iowa Department of Public Health 2014

Approved: March 13, 1995
Reviewed: April 24, 2017
Revised: May 11, 2015