

VANDALISM

For the benefit of the educational program, the board believes everyone should treat school district facilities and property with respect. Users of school district property shall treat it with care.

Persons suspected, found or proven to have destroyed or otherwise harmed school district property may be subject to discipline by the school district, if the person is under the jurisdiction of the school district, as well as be reported to local law enforcement officials. Persons, who are not under the jurisdiction of the school district and who are suspected, found or proven to have destroyed or otherwise harmed school district property shall be reported to the local law enforcement authorities.
